

2010 DIVISIONS AND AWARDS for Elementary and Middle Schools

Two Elementary School and Middle School Divisions
Science Fair Projects				Inventions
Grades K-5 or K-6			Grades 6-8 or 7-8			Grades K-8
Three types of projects			Two types of projects			Two types of inventions
Individual	Team Max 3 Members	Class $\Delta$	Individual	Team Max 3 Members		Individual	Team Max 3 Members	Class $\Delta$
(ΔK-1 may submit only class projects)				(ΔK-1 may submit only class projects)
NO categories – judged by grade level and then by type of project			2 categories		2 categories		NO categories – judged by grade level and then by type of project
Each elementary school may submit a combined total of 12 science fair projects per school - any grade level or type of invention.			Life Sciences	Physical Sciences	Life Sciences	Physical Sciences	Each school may submit a combined total of 12 inventions projects per school - any grade level or type of invention.
			Each middle school may submit a combined total of 12 science fair projects per school; any grade level or category
Awards
Top three individuals per grade will receive trophies*	Top three teams per grade will receive ribbons*	Top three classes per grade will receive one ribbon for the class*	Top three individuals per grade and per category will receive trophies*		Top three teams per grade and per category will receive ribbons*		Top three individuals per grade will receive trophies*	Top three teams per grade will receive ribbons*	Top three classes per grade will receive one ribbon for the class*
Up to two Honorable Mention medals may also be awarded for grades K-5 or K-6 at the discretion of the judges*			Up to two Honorable Mention medals may also be awarded for grades 6-8 or 7-8 at the discretion of the judges*			Up to two Honorable Mention medals may also be awarded for grades K-8 at the discretion of the judges*
Each participant in the Science and Invention Divisions will receive a participation ribbon or pin at on-site check-in..
*depending on number of participants and quality of projects at the discretion of the judges.									